

1924 THE PHILADELPHIA CLASSICAL SOCIETY 2010

Sunday, February 14, 2010 (dies Solis Kal. Feb. MMDCCCLXIII A.U.C.)

Dear Teacher of the Classics,

The judges have met and made their decisions on the artistic, literary and exam entries for the 71st annual PCS Latin Week competition. You can be very proud of your students' accomplishments. We likewise congratulate you for that inspiration which you provide every day in and out of your classrooms.

On a separate sheet you will find lists of winners from your school. You and your students and their well-wishers (family member, friends) are invited to celebrate these achievements at our Society's annual luncheon, which will take place at:

12 noon on Saturday, March 13, 2010

Drexelbrook Catering
4700 Drexelbrook Drive
Drexel Hill, PA

www.drexelbrookcatering.com

The cost of this elegantly-served luncheon will be $24.50 per person, inclusive. Admission will be by ticket only, and seating is limited. Please encourage your students to submit their registrations promptly. All tickets must be paid for in advance: tickets may not be purchased at the door. In the event that we exceed capacity, reservations will be honored in the order in which they are received. If a school's registration is unusually large, we may have to limit the number to accommodate other schools. You will be notified by phone if the size of your group needs to be adjusted.

In order to seat you, your students, and their families together, we request that the students return their forms and checks directly to you. (checks made payable to The Philadelphia Classical Society). Please mail these checks and forms as soon as possible, but no later than Monday, March 1, 2010. Also, confirm your number of luncheon attendees by calling Mrs. Mary Brown at (610) 896-8903. We will then send you your tickets with table numbers.

Enclosed is a form for your registration along with separate reproducible forms for your students. To facilitate timely returns, we have noted an earlier due date on the student form (Friday, February 26).

On the teacher's registration form, please note the total number of chicken and vegetarian meals your students and families have ordered. Drexelbrook will not make last-minute changes to a school's order.

On the judging day, as has been our custom, certain projects from each category were identified by the judges as "Best of Category." We ask you to bring any of these projects for display at the luncheon. Please bring these "Bests" to Drexelbrook by 11:30 A.M. Teachers are also requested to see to the removal of all projects at the end of the luncheon.

Thank you again for your love of Latin and the Classics, in your participation for the benefit of the students, and in your assistance in celebrating their very considerable accomplishments.

ex animo,

Lynn Ennis Iozzo, President
For the Officers of the Philadelphia Classical Society
